

NEW APPOINTMENTS

IAN GROENEWALD
TBI

JOINING THE BOARD

Trustee Board Investments (TBI), has added these two company directors, expanding the board to eight seats. The move comes in light of TBI's recent acquisition of Ora Fund Managers. Groenewald, who has joined the board as an executive director, has over 25 years' experience and is also a skilled dealmaker with a knack for building financial services businesses. He was one of the founding partners of Ora Fund Managers and currently serves as the firm's CEO.

TENIE VAN DER MESCHT
TBI

As former chief executive of Sanlam Collective Investments, Van der Mescht has over 30 years' experience in investment management businesses. Van der Mescht joined Ora Fund Managers' board in 2012 and is also chairman of the Ora audit and risk committee. He joins TBI as a non-executive director.

"TBI's investment objective is to create sustainable growth in shareholder value," says Abrie du Preez, chief executive of TBI. "With their combined experience, Ian and Tienie will be indispensable in the pursuit of that objective."

ERIC DOM
AIG

STRATEGIC PROMOTION

Dom is now strategic business development for liability and financial lines for AIG South Africa. He will continue to underwrite selected liability risks while focusing on business development across the liability and financial lines portfolios. Dom joined AIG (known then as All) in 1988 as the Cape Town branch manager and, after a short absence, rejoined the company in 1996 as casualty profit centre manager. During his career at AIG, he has held many management positions, including branch manager, casualty regional manager for Africa, and compliance officer for AIG SA and AIG Life.

MAKOLO KALAMBAIE
AIG

HEADING UP

Kalambaie has been promoted to financial lines profit centre manager for AIG South Africa. He is responsible for all financial lines business in South Africa. Kalambaie joined AIG in February 2011 as head of the financial institution's portfolio. He was promoted to underwriting manager in December 2013 overseeing all products; and in August 2016, was further promoted to financial lines manager. He has 13 years' experience in the insurance industry, and has a postgraduate BCom degree in insurance and risk management from the University of Witwatersrand.

JACQUI JOOSTE
Coface

FRESH AIR AT THE TOP

Coface South Africa now has Jooste as its CEO and country manager. Her focus will be to further the business and combine Coface's international business experience with its strong relationship locally with brokers and customers. Jooste has been an executive director and board member of Coface since August 2008 and has held the position of COO since September 2014.

HEATHER MORRIS
AIG

RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL

Morris has been promoted to the position of liability profit centre manager for South Africa. She is responsible for all liability business across the country.

BONANG MOHALE
Busa

AT THE HELM

Business Unity South Africa (Busa) has welcomed Bonang Mohale as the CEO of its member organisation, Business Leadership South Africa (BLSA). Mohale was the chairman and vice president of Shell South Africa Energy Limited.

In his new role, Mohale will add weight to the important role that organised business must play given the current challenging conditions facing the economy. He is a well-known champion of business and a respected voice on the many issues facing both the business community and society as a whole in South Africa today.